would be enquired into. Does it mean that the people in the countryside who are not informed of this notification would know as to whom they should approach and in which way benefit would come to them?

Rama Varmha Tampuran (Secretary to Government): Government have absolutely no objection to publish these things in the local dailies, if that is the case of the hon'ble member. But there is no use of asking the village administration to collect statistics. I think the more correct and proper procedure is for the applicants themselves to put in petitions. If the hon'ble member thinks that the Gazette notification by itself will not be sufficient, Government will have no objection to publish it in the daily papers.

Mr. C. R. Iyyunni (Trichur-South): Then, may I request that these things may be published in the daily papers? In the second place, may I also request the Government whether they would be pleased to exempt these petitions from stamp duty?

Rama Varmha Tampuran (Secretary to Government): That also will be done.

Mr. C. R. Iyyunni (Trichur-South): If these things are done, then that would go a long way to help these poor people.

Rama Varmha Tampuran (Secretary to Government): Both these things will be done.
